HOLIDAY EDITION 2011

The Prez Speaks

Steam Dreamers of Inverness is completed! I realize that some of you like to wait until a series has ended before buying the Complete Set. But if you purchase each part when it's released, it helps fund the next part.

These productions are costly, they really do take time. We certainly are grateful when you buy the completed series, but for those of you who purchase each part when it's ready, we remove our hats, give a deep bow, and say, "Thank you, thank you."

Ruby Refreshed

Today's technology has advanced far beyond the early drum machine, voice processor and synthesizer we used back in 1981. We felt it'd be fun to revisit RUBY, The Adventures of a Galactic Gumshoe, spruce her up a bit, and give her more juice.

We haven't changed the voices or SFX, only the music. Tim Clark is now recomposing the music for all 65 episodes. RUBY is a classic, she still sounds fresh, and with Tim's new music, she's sparkling!

We are offering "Ruby Refreshed" as CDs & downloads. Part 1 (CD #1, 22 episodes) is ready now. Part 2 & 3 will be ready in 2012.

Steam Dreamers of Inverness Part 4, Finale

Back on The Illuminato, our adventurous trio discover a Clockwork Kingdom inhabited by mechanical creatures. These dusty windup automata haven't moved in decades. Each one represents a different archetype; Magician, Wizard, Witch, Gypsy, Devil, Trickster, Grim Reaper. And then one night, the automata begin to walk, and talk, and move about the city. But who has wound them up? And where are they going? 2 hours.

Jack Flanders Adventures

Return to Inverness

Jack Flanders has inherited the Inverness mansion from his late aunt, Lady Jowls. A strange energy is emanating from the ruins of a temple that Madame Trunknose believes is the awakening of an old pagan god. Jack calls Mojo to help save Inverness. When Jack hears the voice of Little Frieda calling for help, he enters the Fourth Tower and finds not only Little Frieda, but also the seductive, shape-shifting daughter of the King of the Rakshasas! 6 hours.

Moon Over Morocco

Many consider this Fulton's finest. All the sounds were recorded in Morocco. The writer, Paul Bowles, contributed his collection of rare Moroccan music. It's one of our richest sound productions, and it's a great story.

Jack Flanders travels to Morocco, believing that in this primitive country, where magic remains an integral part of daily life, he may discover this knowledge. Jack discovers far more when he steps through the Gate of Peacocks and into a lost world reminiscent of 1001 Arabian Nights. Music recorded in Morocco. 10 hours.

The Last Harbinger

An Elegy for Shadows Fleeting in Twilight

A strange Harbinger is sent on a mission. The people of Moloch are running out of time. Their seas are dead, the ice caps are gone, the air is filled with toxins. Moloch is swallowing itself. The Harbinger brings the truth, but can truth save a world from self-destruction? This is a pull-no-punches satiric parable for our time. Excellent production. Infidel

Infidel is a compelling historical drama about two brothers torn apart by the horrors of the Fifth Crusade.

Based on contemporaneous accounts of the Fifth Crusade, Infidel exposes many historical parallels that shed a disturbing light on the conflicts of today. A drama that challenges the fundamentalist architects of war, Infidel examines the contradictions between self-righteous belief and human compassion. This production was selected by BBC Radio 4 as among 'the best radio dramas in the English speaking world'. 2 hours.

Blue Bamboo

This wasn't created for ZBS, Tim composed this for himself. It's so lyrical and lush, it's like a trip to a "fantasy tropics," the kind you daydream about, swinging in a hammock, a warm ocean breeze, the scent of jasmine and gardenias, while every muscle in your body emits a soft sensual sigh.

4 Minute Film Noir Season #1

VIDEO

Joe & Moe come from the world of Film Noir; a world of thugs, cons, cops, suckers, sweethearts, and hot tomatoes.

They find humor in odd places: a fat lawyer being pursued by a steam roller; a wise Indian who plays the fall guy in a land fraud; a gangster whose mother drives him nuts; and Polish bank robbers who dress up like Tonto and call each other "Kemo Sabe."

Six stories: When Little Girls Come Out to Play; Even Rattlesnakes Get the Blues; Formerly, Fat Louie; Chief Sitting Duck; Death Rides a Fast Camel and The Three Kemo Sabes.

4 Minute Film Noir Season #2

VIDEO

Joining Joe & Moe is the cocktail waitress, Flo. In Nightmare on Stool Pigeon Street, Joe tells of being caught in a dream where he can't wake up because, "It's my life!" In The Woman Who Didn't Wear Panties, he tells a tale about a rather eccentric ex-girlfriend.

In A Big Sack of Wind, a vengeful Flo dreams of slipping a bomb into Ricco's overcoat. While at Galloway's, Moe encounters his doppelganger. Sully/Sally is a classic detective tale with a twist. And finally there's, The Little Guy with the Big Roscoe.

Mojo and Little Frieda Mysteries

Mojo's Vest Pocket Voodoo Adventures

Mojo is given a pocket watch from someone he's never met, a detective named "Rufus." The watch has no hands, only an opaque face like a Zombie's eye.

Mistaken for Rufus, he's hired to find Angelina, the missing sister of a Philadelphia gangster. By using his watch as a portal, Mojo is able to look beyond the veils of this world; he traces Angelina to a mysterious train, The Voodoo Express.

He discovers that Rufus is being pursued by Baron La Croix, a man with a not-very-nice sense of humor. Mojo is able to get aboard The Voodoo Express; getting off is another matter. 1 hour.

DINOTOPIA

"A masterpiece of production."

AudioFile Magazine

Dinotopia by Jim Gurney

Arthur Dennison and his son, Will, are shipwrecked on a strange island inhabited by humans and dinosaurs. The dinosaurs escaped extinction by living underground, and slowly, over time, they developed a language, in fact a whole culture. This is a wise and gentle story of humans and dinosaurs of all sorts living and working together.

Out of thousands of audio dramas, Dinotopia was chosen by Contributing Editor Yuri Rasovsky as one of the eight best audio dramas ever produced. 2 hours.

The Christian Science Monitor

SARATOGA

Saratoga Springs

Life in Small Town America

Here is the complete series that aired daily on National Public Radio. It was described by Weekly Variety as: A sort of avant-garde Peyton Place without the angst fascinating, thoroughly offbeat ... handled with a light touch and a good deal of whimsy.

A few of the characters are actually real, playing themselves, others are not, but modeled after some of the locals. It's charming, humorous, even quite witty. There's also a fair degree of truth. Saratoga Springs has a rich history; the racetrack, the spas, the gambling casinos, the classy old hotels, along with some pretty amazing characters that have passed through. It's all woven within the story.
